Now is the time to drink sassafras tea. Although medical men do not claim any wonderful medicinal value for the bark from the roots of the sassafras, yet for years past it has been the proper thing to drink and drink again from the soothing sassafras tea to feel a renewal of youth. For those who have never seen a genuine sassafras tree, and would like to see one, it is said such a tree is growing right here in Salem on the grounds just east of the state house.

The Roth Grocery Co. anticipate the largest day in their new building tomorrow. They will serve Tru Blu Waters and Del Mont Fruits to all visitors. You be there.

"Is Religion of Any Real Benefit?" This is the question which Rev. Fischer will answer at the Unitarian church Sunday morning. The European war is having its effect upon religion and while the people of Europe are filling the churches at services, yet ever increasing numbers in our own country are questioning the real benefit of religion. All people interested in this vital question are invited to attend the Unitarian church Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

The Frame Shop and Giftery wishes to announce that location has been changed to 415 Court street between Liberty and High streets in the new location. Now open for business. The announcement of formal opening reception later.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

Judge Galloway solved the Statesman puzzle case in his department of the circuit court today awarding first prize of $100 to H. V. McLean; second prize, of $75, to H. C. Tillman, and third prize of $100, to Mrs. B. Jones. The four who scored highest in the contest were barred by the judge on the grounds of collusion. This contest which was pulled off about a year ago consisted of a number of squares containing figures which were to be added together in straight lines and the one making the greatest total won the prize. The officials in charge of the contest had the four who had the highest total occupied together, and so refused to pay over the prize money. The publicists then filed a suit against Charles Gray, Frank Foltin, John Kieraldo and Stanislaw Zanowski, H. V. McLean, H. C. Tillman and Mrs. B. Jones asking that the judge of the court unscramble the puzzle and awarding that the first four contestants working together to get their high results. Carey P. Martin, attorney for the first four, gave notice that he would appeal the case to the supreme court.

The following were the results of the contest:
 Charles Gray, 329,988; Frank Foltin, 330,229; John Kieraldo, 329,949; Stanislaw Zanowski, 330,224; H. V. McLean, 328,281; H. C. Tillman, 326,908; Mrs. B. Jones, 326,009.

The deputy assessors of this county will meet at the court house next Monday at the office of Assessor Rev. F. West to discuss assessment of property for the coming year and to receive instructions and supplies. The following deputies will attend:
 L. I. Snyder, Aurora; H. E. Marly-Donald, T. J. Kerr, St Paul; Henry Hall, Woodburn; S. A. Peterson, Monitor; R. J. J. Miller, Gervais; Joseph J. Bushnell, Mt. Angel; A. Ulvin, Silverton; George Thomas, Scotts Mills; C. E. Taylor, Holt; G. H. Ottoway, South of Silverton; J. T. Tweed, Howell Prairie; Frank Lick, Brooks; E. E. Martin, East Salem; Matthew Gibson, Sublimity; G. E. Van Noy, Aumsville; D. B. Hill, Mill City; Ed Selgmann, Mehama; George Kuech, Stayton; I. Conklin, Marion; A. C. Libby, Jefferson; T. B. Patterson, Macleay; R. P. Nye, Ankeny Bottom; George Palmer, Sydney; C. H. Sawyer, Liberty.

M. E. Pogue and Rollin K. Page today brought suit against B. M. Beilke and Vera Beilke in the circuit court asking that the plaintiffs be given the right to pay into court $1,705.50 belonging to the defendants. It is stated in the complaint that the defendants deposited this sum with the plaintiffs with the express order that none of it be given out except upon the written order signed by both parties and the attorneys claim that the defendants are in dispute as to what part of the money belongs to each and they ask that the court settle the interests of the defendants in the money.

John Kintz was appointed road supervisor of road district No. 24 today by the county court and Ole O. Rue was appointed road supervisor of road district No. 56.

Ung Lung Chung today filed a suit in the circuit court against A. Haldeman and Christian Myer in which it is alleged that the defendant Haldeman gave a note to the plaintiff in 1912 for the sum of $400. January 16, 1916, the plaintiff brought suit to collect on the note and secured judgment against Haldeman for $400 with $12.50 costs and $50 attorney's fees. It then appeared that on January 3, 1916, Haldeman gave a deed for lots 7, 8, 9 and 10 in block 4 Fairmount addition and the plaintiff alleges that the transfer of realty was made to avoid the security of the note. McNary & McNary are attorneys for the plaintiff.

A. O. Sherven today filed a suit against J. S. Baird asking for an order restraining the defendant from blocking up a roadway and requiring him to remove the present obstacles and for $250 damages. Grant Corby is attorney for the plaintiff.
